

FY2018 RDIRI Report Meeting

Social Sciences for Modern Regions and Localities –Towards Constructing a New Regional Science– Call for Poster Submission and Instruction for Authors

Call for Poster Presentation:

Research and Development Institute of Regional Information (RDIRI), Ritsumeikan University will organize a 'FY2018 RDIRI Report Meeting' to report the research activities for FY2018 and to discuss the direction of the research activities from FY2019. We are inviting submissions for poster presentation from the graduate students, professors, and visiting scholars etc. (Poster session will be held in the same day.)

Co-sponsored by:

Research and Development Institute of Regional Information (RDIRI), Ritsumeikan University
Office of Regional Collaboration at Osaka Ibaraki Campus, Ritsumeikan University

Qualification:

Poster should be written in Japanese or English and the contents should be research activities at RDIRI for FY2018. Applicants should be graduate students, professors, and researchers those who are members of RDIRI.

Time table of poster presentation and Q&A sessions:

Venue OIC B bldg. 2nd Floor B275, 276

Presentation 20th March 2019 (Wed)

Q&A Session 15:10-16:00

(Applicants are expected to wait for questions and to answer the participants during Q&A session)

Submission documents:

(1) Poster (submit as a PDF file, A3 size)

For presentation poster will be printed in A0 size, portrait format in Full Color. Please create a PDF file using the attached poster templates (A3 size: docx, pptx)

(2) Registration form (submit as docx file)

Please fill in the registration using the attached docx file. Abstract should be written in English with 100-150 words.

Poster acceptance:

Posters and registration forms are refereed according to above qualifications.

Submission deadline: 4th March, 2019(Mon)

Please submit to: Makiko Oura (Administrator of RDIRI) rdiri@st.ritsumei.ac.jp