

(Purpose)

Article 1. The purpose of these regulations is to stipulate matters pertaining to entrance examination fees, admission fees, tuition, practicum fees, matriculation fees, special enrollment fees, nondegree tuition, auditing fees, special course fees, trainee fees, researcher fees, foreign researcher fees and professional training fees pursuant to Article 66 of the Ritsumeikan University Regulations (“University Regulations”) and Article 88 of the Ritsumeikan University Graduate School Regulations (“Graduate School Regulations”).

Article 2. Due dates for the payment of entrance examination fees are set forth in the applicable application guidelines.

(Enrollment procedure payments)

Article 3. The payments at the time of enrollment procedures prescribed in Article 24 of the University Regulations and Article 59 of the Graduate School Regulations shall be the admission fee and first semester tuition for the first year of enrollment for April enrollees and the admission fee and the second semester tuition for the first year of enrollment for September enrollees.

2. Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, credit-based tuition in the Graduate School of Management is not included in the payments at the time of enrollment procedures.

(Admission fee payment dates)

Article 4. Due dates for the payment of admission fees are set forth in the applicable enrollment guidelines.

(Tuition payment dates)

Article 5. Due dates for payment of tuition are set forth in Annexure 1-1.

2. Notwithstanding the preceding paragraph, due dates for payment of tuition in the Graduate School of Management are set forth in Annexure 1-2.

3. Notwithstanding the preceding two paragraphs, due dates for payment of tuition by students undertaking a curricular program on a long-term basis as prescribed in Article 19 of the University Regulations (“long-term degree students”) are set forth in Annexure 1-3.

4. Notwithstanding the preceding three paragraphs, the due date for payment of tuition by a foreign student required to obtain a new “College Student” status of residence in Japan pursuant to reinstatement shall be within two weeks following the day on which permission for reinstatement was granted.

(Late payment of tuition)

Article 6. A student in a Graduate School who has difficulty making the payments at the time of enrollment procedures prescribed in paragraph 1, Article 3, excluding the admission fee, can apply for a payment deadline extension, and if approved by the Dean of the applicable Graduate School, be permitted to make a late payment. However, this provision does not apply to students in the Graduate School of Management.

2. The payment due dates for deadline extensions approved pursuant to the preceding paragraph are set forth in Annexure 1-4.

(Settlement of first semester tuition for long-term degree students in their first year of enrollment)

Article 7. Any discrepancy in the amount of tuition for a given semester for long-term degree students in their first year of enrollment shall be settled after tuition is fixed following course registration. The due date for reimbursement or additional payment in such cases is set forth in Annexure 2.

2. For persons permitted to undertake a curricular program over an extended period (hereinafter, "long-term graduate students") as prescribed in Article 28-2 of the Graduate School Regulations, any discrepancy in the amount of tuition shall be settled and refunded by the due date set forth in Annexure 2. In the case of April enrollees, the discrepancy in the amount paid for the first semester tuition for the first year of enrollment and second semester tuition, and in the case of September enrollees, the discrepancy in the amount paid for the second semester tuition for the first year of enrollment shall be refunded.

3. If the permitted period for long-term graduate students is shortened, the difference between the tuition already paid and the total amount of tuition to be paid for the standard program duration shall be settled, and additional payment for the discrepancy will be billed for the academic year that the day on which the period was shortened falls under. The due date for additional payment in such cases is set forth in Annexure 2.

(Tuition on delay of graduation or completion pursuant to punitive action)

Article 8. A student whose graduation or completion date is delayed to the following semester pursuant to punitive action must pay tuition for that following semester.

(Practicum fees)

Article 9. Practicum fees prescribed in Article 67 of the University Regulations and Article 78 of the Graduate School Regulations are set forth in Annexure 3. However, Practicum fees in the case of a university-organized study abroad program shall be prescribed in the program guidelines, application guidelines and/or similar documentation pertaining to the said program.

2. Due dates for payment of practicum fees shall be prescribed in program guidelines, application guidelines and/or similar documentation.

(Matriculation fee payment date)

Article 10. The matriculation fee shall be due within two weeks following the day on which leave of absence was granted.

(Special enrollment fee payment date)

Article 11. The due dates for payment of special enrollment fees are as follows.

(1) First semester fee: April 30

(2) Second semester fee: September 30

(Payment dates for non-degree tuition, auditing fees, special course fees, trainee student fees, research student fees, foreign research student fees and professional training fees)

Article 12. Non-degree tuition, auditing fees, special course fees, trainee fees, researcher fees, foreign researcher fees and professional training fees shall be due within two weeks from the day on which the activity to which the fee pertains was approved.

(Payments due on a financial institution holiday)

Article 13. In the event that a due date for payment prescribed in these Regulations falls on a holiday for financial institutions, the payment shall be due on the day following the holiday.
