

What Does “Black Lives Matter”

Actually Mean?

This event is divided into two parts, introductory videos and discussion.

【Session One: Introductory videos】

- Date: Sunday, July 12, 20:30~22:00(JST)
- Medium of Communication: Video conferencing (Zoom)
- Target: All undergraduate/graduate students from three campuses (KIC/BKC/OIC)
- Quota: 90 people
- Language: Mainly Japanese (English speakers are also welcome.)

For participations, please register from the following Google form on manaba+R.

Participants will watch a YouTube talk of Dr. Akiko Maeker and several short video clips of others posted on SNS.

【Session Two: Discussion with Dr. Akiko Maeker】

- Date: Wednesday, July 15, 10:30~12:00 (JST)
 - Medium of Communication: Video conferencing (Zoom)
 - Guest speaker: Akiko Maeker, PhD
- Please see her profile at: <https://www.interculturalist.com/team>
- Target: All undergraduate/graduate students from three campuses (KIC/BKC/OIC)
 - Quota: 70 people
 - Language: Mainly Japanese (English speakers are also welcome.)

For participation, please register from the following Google form on manaba+R.

Based on the knowledge and finding from Session One, participants will freely exchange their views with our guest speaker, Dr.Akiko Maeker.