

12/2 Wed.
18:00-19:30

Reservation
Required

Seminar
for

Students Who Would Like to Work at the UN or an International Organization

For: All RU students in all colleges/ graduate schools (those interested in a career at the UN or an international organization)

※This seminar is mainly about the programme for Japanese nationals and for those interested in hearing about the speakers' experiences working in international organizations. International students are welcome to attend. The seminar will be held in Japanese only.

Speakers | Ryu Sakuma

Project Officer, Gaziantep Sub Office, International Organization for Migration (IOM)

Naoyuki Watanabe

Assistant Director of the Recruitment Center for International Organizations, Foreign Policy Bureau, Ministry of Foreign Affairs of Japan

Topics | - Experiences working at international organizations

- Differences between working as an international civil servant and working for the Japanese government, ministry or local government
- 3 ways to apply to an international organization
- The JPO Programme (*1)
- What to do as a student to prepare to work at an international organization like the United Nations
- Q&A

(*1) Junior Professional Officer (JPO) Programme: a program for Japanese young people who aim to work at an international institution in the future through which the Japanese government financially sponsors them so they can work as staff members at international organizations for a certain period (in principle, two years) and gain relevant knowledge and experience

Held via Zoom | Registration deadline – Sunday, Nov. 29 at 23:59 (first 500 applicants)

Applicants will be contacted via manaba+R by Nov. 28 should there be any handouts to distribute in advance. Questions to the speaker may be entered on the registration form. Some questions may not be answered due to time constraints, etc.

current infor

- Please note that the broadcast may be stopped in the event of technical difficulties.
- Please prioritize classes over participation in this event.
- Topics are subject to change. Please check the Career Center website for the most up-to-date information and important notes on changes.

Register via this website

Organized by: Ritsumeikan University Career Center