

Self-Study Spaces on Campus

On OIC, if students would like to attend the media-based classes (including the ones which the students need to speak out during the class) when they are on campus, the class rooms allocated to each class are available for them. “Concourse,” “OIC Library” and “R+ing (Commons on 1F, Building G)” are available for students as self-study spaces.

Please see the map below to check where they are.
