

She and the "S" is for "Strong" WOMEN.

We cannot choose where we are born.
Life is not easy.
But we need to live
in order to grow our children.
"I can't throw her away because I love her."
"LOVE" that mama gives to her children is universal.
Mamas are so strong.
They do everything for their children.
We love mamas.
