

Graduate School of International Relations

<Lunchtime Graduate School Admissions Seminar for Undergraduate Students in Japanese>

Come join us to learn about the Graduate School of International Relations and the many great opportunities for the future. We will introduce our new program starting from AY 2015 which cultivates students with the ability to play an active role on the global stage.

Date/Time : 6/11 (Wed) 12:15-12:55 Place : Seishinkan 541

Date/Time : 6/18 (Wed) 12:15-12:55 Place : Shigakukan 121

<Lunchtime Graduate School Admissions Seminar for College of IR / GS Students in English>

Come hear from our professors and current students about using what you learned at the College of IR to advance and study at the Graduate School of International Relations.

Date/Time : 6/17 (Tue) 12:15-12:55 Place : Koshinkan 731

<Consultation Session with Professors of the Graduate School for All Students>

This year, we will again hold a consultation session with professors of the Graduate School of International Relations, which was well received by participants last year. You will be able to consult with them in a relaxed atmosphere about your specific research theme and enrolling in the Graduate School. Please take advantage of this session as an opportunity to deepen and develop your research theme if you have one, or to help narrow down possible research themes and career paths if you are thinking about going on to the Graduate School. We will offer many great opportunities to learn more about the Graduate School of International Relations.

Date/Time : 6/17 (Tue) 18:00-19:30 Place : Koshinkan 731 (both in Japanese and English)

◆Schedule

- 1 Introduction of the Graduate School from a professor
- 2 Consultation with several instructors about individual research fields
- 3 Consultation about special programs such as DMDP and Internship

◆ Professors planning to participate

(The following list is subject to change.)

Prof. NAKATSUJI, Keiji	International History, International Relations in East Asia
Prof. MINAMINO, Yasuyoshi	Comparative Politics, Anglo-Irish Political History
Prof. NAKATO, Sachio	International Political Economy, US-Japan Economic Conflict
Assoc. Prof. IWATA, Takuo	Comparative Science, African Studies
Prof. KOYAMA, Masahisa	International Development and Cooperation, Development Studies of Mekong Basin Countries
Assoc. Prof. MINAMIKAWA, Fuminori	Sociology, International Migration
Assoc. Prof. KOGA-BROWES, Scott	Media Studies, Visual Semiotic Analysis of TV News

◆ Details of Faculty of the Graduate School of International Relations

<http://www.ritsumeai.ac.jp/gsir/> →7Key Features→Key2|

Over 10 Years of History

GCP

Global Cooperation Program

Features Include

1

Distinguished Faculty from Academic and Professional Fields

2

Students from a Wide Variety of Career Backgrounds

3

International Relations Studies with a Focus on International Cooperation

The Global Cooperation Program (GCP) is a pioneering English-based Master's Course program, focusing on international relations and cooperation. GCP's distinguished teachers from academic and professional fields have been training international students from all over the world since 2003. With this specialized program of international cooperation, Graduate School of International Relations in Ritsumeikan University is highly acclaimed as an official member of APSIA (Association of Professional Schools of International Affairs). GCP offers courses by specialists and professionals from international, governmental and non-governmental organizations.

Study the Issues Faces in Japan

GJP

Global and Japanese Perspectives Program

Features Include

1

Study about Japan and Coping with Global Issues from Japan

2

Learn from Top Experts in Japan

3

Study in the Historical and Cultural Capital of Japan-Kyoto

The Global and Japanese Perspectives Program (GJP) is a new English-based Master's Course program. GJP provides specialized courses on Japan studies and core courses on international relations. By studying about Japan and international relations through course work including the new Core course called "GJP Platform," students can gain a perspective of Japan in political, economic, and cultural changes under globalization. Comprehensive Japanese language classes are also offered to international students.