

International Workshop on Globally Shared Common Sense from the Philosophy of Imagination : Bridging Eastern and Western Perspectives

Date

February 6 (Saturday)

Japan 09:30-16:10; Taipei 08:30-15:10;

USA, Minneapolis: CST 18:30-24:10;

Cincinnati: EST 19:30-01:10

Venue

Asia-Japan Research Institute, Ritsumeikan University,
Osaka, Japan plus Online

Chairman : Dr. Nobuyuki Matsui (Ritsumeikan University)

Presenters

The Philosopher's Path to San Jose :
Nondualism, Distributed Cognition, and Imagination

Jonathan McKinney

Ph.D. Candidate, University of Cincinnati

Reading Miki Kiyoshi's Anthropological Humanism in the Struggle against Global Climate Change

Dennis Stromback

Independent Researcher

What is the Globality of the 'Common Sense' ? : Somatesthesia in the Age of Chaotic Capitalism

Matsui Nobuyuki

Visiting Researcher,
Asia-Japan Research Institute,
Ritsumeikan University

Common Sense, Myth and Technology in Miki Kiyoshi

Fernando Wirtz

Research Fellow (JSPS), Kyoto University / University of Tübingen

Primacy of Imagination and Sensus
Communis: In Considering a Transcultural Subjectivity

Tyler Tak-lap Yeung

Postdoctoral Fellow, Academia Sinica,
Taiwan

