

AY2025 Fall Semester Makeup Examinations: Application Procedures

November 2025
Ritsumeikan University

Students who are unable to take final examination(s) due to unavoidable circumstances (illness, bereavement, etc.) specified in the “Ritsumeikan University Regulations for Final Examination” may be allowed to take makeup examinations. Such students must read this document thoroughly and follow the prescribed procedures to apply for make-up examinations. However, only regular students, non-degree students (科目等履修生), special auditing students (特別聴講学生) can apply for makeup examinations.

*Make-up examinations differ from the re-examinations held by the College of Pharmaceutical Sciences. For details on re-examinations, check the examination schedule.

*No special consideration will be provided for absence from exams/make-up exams due to overlap with study abroad programs conducted by the International Center or APU Summer Session Courses.

(1) Applicable Courses

Students can apply make-up examinations for courses in which the grade evaluation method, as indicated in the syllabus, is specifically designated as ‘Final Examination(written)’

*Examinations conducted during classes are not subject to make-up examinations.

(2) Reasons for Exam Absence and Documentation for Makeup Exam Application

Reason for failure to take final examination	Evidence and documentation required
Illness of the examinee	Documentation of the seeing a doctor (The applicable period is within 2 days before or after the visit, including the date of the visit)*1
Bereavement (spouse (Includes de facto marriages and partnerships) and first- degree relative or second and third-degree relative)	Official death certificate, mourning letter, other documents confirming the date of death or the date of the funeral (up to 7 days including weekends and holidays after the death of a spouse or first-degree relative and 5 days including weekends and holidays after the death of a second and third-degree relative.)
Attendance at a wedding ceremony (of a first- or second-degree relative. Does not include attendance at wedding of the student.)	Wedding invitation card
Natural disaster	Disaster victim's certificate
Employment examination (including examinations for civil servants or examinations for hiring school teachers) *2	Official documentation concerning the employment examination
Examination for graduate school	Exam admission slip
Teaching practicum, nursing care and special education school experience, museum practice	Application form (include the contents, period of the practical training, and the place of the practical training)
Class or exam for a credit transfer course	Certificate of attendance of an exam or class for a credit transfer course
Late arrival of public transport that operates according to a timetable	Documentation confirming a delay of more than 20 minutes issued by a transportation company (Delay certificates for 20 minutes or less are not accepted.)
Extracurricular activity	Certificate of Participation in Varsity Matches, etc.
Lay judge duty	Writ of summons
Prosecution councilor or assistant councilor	Writ of summons
Other unavoidable grounds	Material that serves as the basis for unavoidable circumstances (judged by the Faculty Council based on the material)

*1 A medical certificate or documents issued by a medical institution—such as receipts, medical statements, or prescriptions—that include the name of the medical institution and the date of visit (or date of issue) can be used for the application. However, if the application is not submitted within two days before or after the date of visit, a doctor's certificate is required.

In the case of an infectious disease only, a "Certificate of Recovery from Infectious Disease" issued by the University's Medical Service Center may be used in place of a medical certificate.

*2 For details, please refer to the attachment "Application for a Makeup Examination when unable to take a Final Examination due to Job Examinations".

(3) Application Period

The application period starts from 9:00 a.m. Tuesday, January 6.
