

International Career Month

In November, the Graduate School of International Relations and the Career Center will hold an International Career Month!

Professors from the Graduate School of International Relations will hold seminars and invite guest speakers who are active in international organizations to provide up-to-date information on careers in international organizations.

Please join us if you are interested in pursuing a career at the United Nations or another international organization, or are considering going to graduate school!

We are also accepting questions in advance for all seminars when pre-registering to Zoom!

Eligible Students: Students from all colleges/ graduate schools and all year levels

Language: English

Venue: Online (Zoom)

Pre-Registration Required

You can participate in as many of the four seminars as you choose.
