

Future Forward

Shaping G20 Futures Through Diplomacy

Date:

13:00-14:30 Dec 5, 2024

Place: KS306 (Koshinkan)

Speaker: Aaron Chan

Former U.S. Youth Delegate for G20

Aaron Chan is a White House Presidential Appointee at the Office of the National Cyber Director (ONCD). There he supports the National Cyber Director execute the President's National Cyber Strategy. Previously he worked as the Special Assistant to the FEMA Administrator, and in the personal office of US Senator Tammy Duckworth.

He specializes in transnational environmental security, U.S. Foreign policy in the Indo-Pacific, and international youth engagement. Last year, he served as youth delegate for the United Nations' Young Professionals in Foreign Policy Tokyo Branch at the UN Water Conference, a US representative delegate to the G20 Youth Summit, an organizer for the World Bank Youth Summit, and helped create the first-ever US-ASEAN Futures Symposium.

Admission Free

主催: 立命館大学国際地域研究所
: 立命館大学大学院国際関係研究科
: 国際人口移動時代における寛容な社会創出プロジェクト
(アジア・日本研究推進プログラム)

Inquiries:
kenadach@ir.ritsumei.ac.jp