How I learned foreign languages When I was a student /

学生時代どのように外国語を学習したか

When I was a junior high school student, I started listening to Euro and American music, and became interested in the sound and rhythm of English. It was a good motivation for me to learn English. At that time, English classes in junior high school focused on reading, writing, and grammar, so I listened to English study programs on the radio every morning to improve my listening skills. I have continuously studied English from junior high school using every possible method to overcome my weaknesses so as to have a good command of English.

A message to students learning foreign languages /外国語を学ぶ学生へのメッセージ

I would like you to become familiar with your target language through daily practice. It's important to have self-esteem and confidence.
