

Graduate School Week 2024

Date : 2024/11/4(Mon) ~ 11/17(Sun)

Among the Programs of Graduate School Week, the programs held in English are introduced below.

Graduate School of International Relations

Ritsumeikan University's Graduate School of International Relations was established in 1992.

We offer international relations, consisting of politics and law, economics and development, culture, society and media, as well as a wide range of regional studies, allowing you to develop advanced and specialized knowledge. The ratio of international students who enroll in our program exceeds 50%, which gives you the opportunity to learn with students from all over the world.

During the Graduate School Week, we have prepared events to help answering questions such as "what are graduate school classes like?" and "what are the possible paths after completion?".

We welcome participation from everyone including students studying in English-based programs, those hoping to study at an English-based graduate school in the future, and those hoping to play an active role in the international community.
