

College of International Relations AY 2022 Management Policy of Scholarships for Learning and Development

Ritsumeikan University has a scholarship/grant system that supports each student's challenge toward their purpose in learning and student life. The University has its own scholarship system to support students to meet their individual academic and student life goals.

The College of International Relations offers the following support programs. Please refer to the application guidelines for details.

Saionji Memorial Scholarship (Academically Outstanding Students Category)

In accordance with the objectives of the "Ritsumeikan Model of Learning," this scholarship aims to reward students who, through hard work, have excelled academically in their curricular studies.

Following the objectives of the "Ritsumeikan Model of Learning," this scholarship aims to reward students who have demonstrated outstanding achievement in their studies at the College of International Relations.

+R Undergraduate College Scholarship

This scholarship aims to award the students who have obtained good grades in curricular subjects and complete distinguished achievement in curricula/academic-related area.

This scholarship aims to award the students who have obtained good grades in curricular subjects and who have demonstrated outstanding achievement in a variety of regularly related endeavours.

Learning Community Off Campus Activity Encouragement Scholarship (For curricular classes)

The "Ritsumeikan University Learning Community Off-Campus Activity Encouragement Scholarship (For Curricular Classes)" is one scholarship scheme at Ritsumeikan University that helps to support and encourage the realization of this goal. The aim of this scholarship is to encourage any of the learning activities (Senmon Enshu and Advanced Seminar) as part of curricular classes by providing participating students with part of the cost in the form of a "scholarship".