

What to bring to the new students' orientation

- Smartphone, tablet or PC

On the day of the orientation, use your smartphone or computer to log in to the campus website.

- Rainbow ID and the password

It will be required when logging in to the university Wi-Fi or campus website. On Tuesday, September 15 at PM 4:00, your ID and password will be provided through the "Ritsu-Mate" website used during the admission procedures. Please make sure to check your Rainbow ID and password in advance so that you can use them immediately on the day of the orientation.

In addition, please review the following site and complete the initial setup (multi-factor authentication) to log in to the university's dedicated site using your Rainbow ID and password from your computer or smartphone by the first day of orientation.

- Pens and notepads

Please bring a red pen, as it will be used.

- Please bring all the materials distributed on the first day throughout the orientation period, as they will also be used in the guidance sessions from the second day onward.

- Bag

A few booklets and many handouts will be given out. Please bring a bag if necessary.
